Powers Brown Architecture Opens Chicago Office

The international design firm expands its innovative practice format into the Chicagoland market

(Chicago, IL) February 19, 2024 – The internationally recognized design firm Powers Brown Architecture, has opened its newest office in Chicago, marking a strategic move to better support local client needs throughout the midwestern United States. The expansion comes under the leadership of Grant Brandenburg, AIA, NCARB, CDP, a distinguished architect and business leader who joined the firm with his team, this year to spearhead this effort.

Speaking about the move, Founding Principal and Chief Executive Officer Jeffrey Brown said, “When the opportunity to bring Powers Brown Architecture’s value-added approach to architectural services into the crowded Chicagoland market to start the year with a proven local talent like Grant. we knew we had to seize this moment and make a significant move to leverage our relationships with current clients and expand our market share in a competitive environment.”

With a depth of international resources, Powers Brown Architecture provides a comprehensive array of integrated services across the practice, including architectural and interior design, programming, urban design / master planning, all with a focus on enhanced service combined with market know-how and expertise in investment-quality architecture. Powers Brown Architecture pairs a global perspective with local insight to tailor projects to the unique needs of each market, with focused expertise on industrial, interior build-out, multi-family and suburban office delivery as the initial focus in the Midwest region. The firm's accountability-oriented approach is evident through its track record of delivering impactful design solutions, fostering lasting relationships with repeat clients.

The Chicago team, under Brandenburg's leadership, consists of an experienced, locally based group of professionals on both the architectural and interiors fronts.

“Opening our Chicago office is a testament to our dedication to delivering exceptional design solutions to public and private clients,” said Grant Brandenburg, Principal of Powers Brown Architecture. “Our team brings a wealth of experience and a fresh perspective to the local design scene. Our Chicago team has been working together for the past several years and are looking forward to a new and progressive approach, state-of-the-art practices and the best technology under the Powers Brown Architecture umbrella.”

The new office location expands Powers Brown Architecture’s footprint from existing locations in Houston, TX, Atlanta, GA, Denver, CO, Washington, DC, Toronto, ON and Atlantic Canada.
